

English for Global Communication ONLINE

University of Warwick, UK - next course 19th April 2021

The University of Warwick is a top 100 global university (Rank 62nd - QSWR 2020) and 2nd in the UK for Linguistics in the Times UK University League Table. Warwick's English for Global Communication ONLINE Programme is delivered every weekday over two weeks, completely online to groups of 16 participants.

Students may choose from the following modules:

Aspects of British Culture: 16:00–17:00 (CST)

Presentation skills: 17:30– 18:30 (CST)

Academic Skills: 19:00–20:00 (CST)

The modules start every month on the following dates:

19th April 2021

10th May 2021

7th June 2021

ASPECTS OF BRITISH CULTURE

- The family and relationships in Britain
- Essential English skills for studying abroad
- Politics and government
- Sport in the UK
- An introduction to British music
- The media, celebrity and privacy
- Social class and social mobility
- Life in the countryside
- Heritage of Great Britain: an overview
- The canon of English literature

ACADEMIC SKILLS

- Fine-tuning your academic skills
- Introduction to critical thinking skills
- Discussion skills
- Seminar skills
- Academic writing
- Academic reading
- Listening to lectures
- Notetaking
- Project work
- Corpus analysis

PRESENTATION SKILLS

- Pronunciation
- Poster presentations
- Effective presentation skills
- Managing and working your audience
- Using the voice: The Power of the Pause
- IT for presentations
- Tailoring presentations for appropriate audience: utilising humour
- Pitching into a global world
- Presentation session
- Group presentations

Each module consists of 10 sessions, featuring a combination of online materials and live interactive sessions with University of Warwick tutors. The live sessions will include all 16 participants and employ breakout groups for discussion activities and to facilitate task completion. The programme will also feature an online discussion forum moderated by the Director of Studies and group work leading towards an end of programme presentation. Academic study skills will be integrated into all modules.

Please follow the link EGC Online

Students will receive a University of Warwick Certificate of Completion on successfully finishing each of the 10 session blocks (90% attendance is required for successful completion of each module).

The programme fee of £550 per module includes registration, certification and all tuition fees.